

HON. ABRAM C. HATCH of Heber City, who passed away March 24th, 1932, was a veteran business and professional man in the public life of Wasatch County and the state. His home had been in Utah all his life, for over three-quarters of a century, and he was one of the most active of the old-timers in the affairs of his district.

Mr. Hatch was born at Lehi, Utah County, December 14, 1856, son of Abram and Parmelia J. (Lott) Hatch. His father was one of the earliest pioneers of Lehi, and in the course of a long and active life was a merchant, farmer, rancher, and for many years bishop of the Church of the Latter Day Saints. He was the first president of the Wasatch Stake. He died December 3, 1911.

Abram C. Hatch as a boy attended public schools at Lehi and Heber. In 1876, at the age of twenty, he began ranching in Eastern Utah and Western Colorado, raising cattle and horses. In 1879 he established his home at Heber, where he continued in association with his father and brother in the ranch business until 1894. In the meantime there came to him the call of public service. In 1893 he was elected a member of the Legislature from the district comprising Wasatch, Emery and Grand counties. He served one term of two years. In the meantime he was devoting all his leisure time to the study of law and on February 23, 1895, was admitted to practice before the Utah Supreme Court. During the subsequent thirty-five years he handled a large volume of general law practice and has earned the reputation of a very able lawyer. In 1896 he received the Republican nomination for district judge, getting the nomination in convention by a vote of forty-five to eighteen. He was defeated by just 103 votes. However, the successful candidate resigned in June after his election and Judge Hatch was appointed to fill the unexpired term by the governor. In 1900 he was elected on the Republican ticket district attorney for Wasatch, Utah and Uinta counties, serving one term, and refused reelection. Judge Hatch organized the town of Heber, and served as its attorney for three years. He gave freely of his time and professional services in many ways for the benefit of his locality and district. He helped establish the Heber Light & Power Company. He had an official part in the Republican party organization and in 1929 was prominent in the Ogden Republican Convention. He was a member of the Chamber of Commerce of Heber, the Utah State and American Bar Associations.

Judge Hatch married December 17, 1879, Miss Maria Luke of Heber, daughter of Henry and Harriett Luke, who were early settlers in Sanpete County. Mrs. Hatch passed away March 19, 1919. On April 12, 1920, Judge Hatch married Elizabeth Nelson of Heber. His four children were: Abram Chase, Jr., now deceased; Henry Ray, a prominent physician of Idaho Falls, where he established a well equipped hospital; Sumner, now a member of the board of county commissioners of Wasatch County; and Kate, wife of George C. Murdock, Jr., of Beaver, Utah.

WILLIAM BRIGGS, the county attorney of Daggett County, is a resident of Manila and a young man very popular among the people. He has brought to his profession the qualifications of a well educated lawyer, naturally gifted in speaking, and a great earnestness and forcefulness.

He was born in Beaver County, Utah, April 27, 1906, son of John and Jane (Kirkham) Briggs. His parents were born in England and were married in Utah, and they now live at Salt Lake City. His father owns a ranch in Daggett County and a home in Salt Lake City. He has held the office of justice of the peace, has been active in the church and is connected with the Temple at Salt Lake.

William Briggs attended school in Beaver and Daggett counties, and had his high school course at Lyman, Wyoming. While in Lyman he took an active part in school activities. For two years he was one of the first five of the Lyman Basketball Team, was vice president of the Senior Class, and the chief justice of the Lyman High School Student Body Court, which controlled the merit system of the school. In 1927 he entered the law department of the University of Utah. He at once began practice and in 1928 his abilities were recognized in his election to the office of county attorney of Daggett County. Mr. Briggs is a Republican, is a chief chemist and assistant superintendent. Mr. Sanders has been with the plant of the Gunnison Sugar Company since 1922, at first as chief chemist and since 1925 as plant superintendent.

Mr. Sanders is a member of the Lions Club and has always been faithful in his obligations to the Latter Day Saints Church. He married, April 18, 1917, Miss Edna Kyhl, of Richfield, daughter of John H. and Christina (Nielsen) Kyhl. Her parents were early settlers in the Richfield district. Mr. and Mrs. Sanders have six children: Maxine L., H. Kyhl, Edna E., John S., Barbara D. and Evelyn J.

FRANK K. WATSON since early manhood has had his working experience in the various branches connected with the growing and selling of flowers and field and garden seeds. He is one of the valuable men with Salt Lake City's largest organization of seed merchants, Bailey & Sons.

Mr. Watson was born in Salt Lake City, Utah, December 15, 1890, and was a child when his parents, Alexander and Elizabeth Watson, moved west to California.

Frank K. Watson acquired a liberal education in the schools of Salt Lake City, after which he worked for a seed and plant firm for a number of years. He later was employed as a grower and dealer in flowers and in seeds in and near Los Angeles.

After leaving Southern California he came to Salt Lake City to join the organization of Bailey & Sons. His knowledge of everything connected with the seed business has made him a valuable asset to this organization and he has done a great deal to extend the scope of the business over the intermountain country. Mr. Watson is esteemed as a young business man of fine character and has become a popular figure in Salt Lake City commercial circles. He is unmarried.

A. C. HATCH.

Abram C. Hatch is one of the leading lawyers of this Judicial district, and is devoting his time and energies to the cause of law and order and the upbuilding of this state and particularly Wasatch county and Heber City which is his home. Judge Hatch, as he is familiarly known, commenced the study of the law with the writer, and both were admitted to the bar at about the same time.

Judge Hatch was born and reared in this state, and is now in his 51st year. He has been engaged in various business ventures during all of the years since his majority and has gathered about him sufficient of this world's goods to make him comfortable, and with others is still engaged in many business and industrial matters which are calculated to add materially to the wealth of our community.

Just now he is largely interested in the development of the mineral resources of eastern Utah, particularly coal and copper. He has done as much as any one other person to develop the mines in this immediate neighborhood, and many of the properties in which he is interested are now beyond the prospect stage and will bring back the money he and his associates have expended with large profits added.

He has an estimable wife, a Utah girl, who is his friend, and companion, and whose help and kind sympathies in all his works give to him assistance and encouragement, which leads to success.

His family of four children, three boys and one girl, are of a class that causes one to be proud of their parentage. The eldest boy "Chase" is the county attorney, having been appointed to the office to fill an unexpired term, and was elected at the recent election for the coming two years. Ray, the second son, is now a medical student at the University of Utah. Katie is attending the same institution in her third year, and Sumner, a boy of ten, is in the local district school.

Judge Hatch has held many offices in the city, county and state. Justice of the peace, county attorney, town trustee, district attorney and judge of the district court. He was the first acting judge of the Fourth Judicial district, after Utah became a state, having been on the 26th of June, 1896, appointed by Governor Wells to the office, upon the resignation of Judge Wilson, as Judge Wilson was taken sick at the time of qualifying and never attended to any of the duties of the office.

He was the first district attorney elected in this district and held the office for four years until January 1, 1905, and was not a candidate for reelection, as his private business was more than enough to occupy his entire time and would admit of his being at home, while the official business of district attorney called him from home the greater portion of the time. He is a home loving man, and finds his greatest enjoyment in the association of his family and home.

He is a Republican in politics and has been active in the interests of that party since statehood.

Although both his and his wife's parents were good Latter-day Saints, or "Mormons," they do not claim or make any pretensions to any fixed belief in the tenets of any church, but try to live according to Christian teachings and to exemplify in the community a spirit of charity and good will toward all mankind.
